In about 200 words, describe your reasons for applying to study at The Krenov School.

Briefly describe the reasons for applying for a scholarship award from The Krenov Foundation. Since financial need is a component, please provide your gross income from IRS Form 1040 or 1040EZ for last year and list the amount of other forms of support for that same year. Include sources such as parents, grants, government aid, veteran's or Social Security benefits. If other reasons exist to justify awarding you a scholarship such as proof of potential, or demonstrated quality of work, you may support this with photographs, documentation or forms of recognition. This should be in an attached document.

Please attach two letters of recommendation (these may be copies of those used in the application to the School).

Write a short essay addressing the first topic, and another on one of the remaining three:

- 1.I pursue the craft if fine woodworking because...
- 2.My favorite furniture style is...
- 3.The skill I hope to enhance in this program is my ability to...
- 4.The one thing I have always wanted to build is...
